Mark your calendar:

Waterside Coalition Harbor Cruises – Captain Marx, Landfall Navigation, will discuss: Landfall and the Stamford Sailing Foundation will once again sponsor four (4) summer evening cruises for local “Waterside” residents, on board Captain Marx’s Sailing Yacht 2nd CHOICE – as was done last year. You will board at the Avalon Docks about 6:00 pm and back ashore by 9:00 pm. Remember your Southfield Park auto sticker to avoid a parking ticket. In addition, you should bring a sweater or windbreaker, as it gets cool on the water in the evening. Refreshments and snacks will be provided. However, you are welcome to bring a sandwich if you want more. Cruise dates: June 30th - July 21st - August 4th - August 18th. These cruises are open to all Southfield area residents, but are targeted for those who normally do not have access to the water and would like to see Stamford from another side. There is a limit of 6 guests per cruise per U.S. Coast Guard regulations. To sign up contact Waterside Coalition: waterside@watersidecoalition.org or (203) 274-7597.

Waterside Coalition, Inc. is seeking individuals to fill vacant Board positions. We welcome referrals of qualified candidates who are over the age of 18 residing in or owning real estate or any entity doing business in the Waterside Neighborhood. Each candidate should attend our September 3rd Board meeting at St. Clement Church 5:30 pm.

March 4thMeeting Highlights*Connecticut Light and Power - Margo Jackson:

- Provided Energy Matter Booklets. The major source of energy is heating and cooling with 44% hot water, 15% technology, and 11% refrigeration. And discussed how to cut appliance operating costs and how to save on heating and lighting bills.

Stamford Hospital – Dr. Nero:

- Demonstrated CPR training and involved attendee participation to use an automatic external defibrillator (AED).
