*Sept. 1st, Nov. 3rd, Jan. 5th, Mar. 1st, Jun. 7th

Neighbors Link Stamford, the City's newest resource center, will provide services to educate, empower, employ, and integrate recent immigrants by:

- Offering free adult English language classes
- Facilitating an orderly, safe, and secure job hiring site that connects employers with workers
- Providing training to enhance job skills
- Referring families to local health, education and social service providers
- Organizing informational, social and recreational programs
- Engaging community volunteers

The June 2nd Community meeting is being devoted exclusively to a presentation by representatives of Neighbors Link Stamford on the objectives and activities planned for the center to be located at 75 Selleck Street and to obtain feedback from neighborhood residents. You are all encouraged to attend.
